Billionaire Silver Cut Range Shirt from Harrods

Cost £276 to purchase five months prior to going to a cleaners to be hand ironed only.

This Billionaire Silver Cut range shirt from Harrods cost the customer £276 five months prior to taking it in for professional hand ironing.

The care label is conflicting as you will see. The complaint from the customer is that the shirt was sent in for ironing only and has been spoiled by the ironing process e.g. "iron too hot".

From what you can see from the wear on the cuffs and collar line the dye is also sensitive to abrasion because the customer claims it to be only five months old and bought as a dress shirt and also claimed not to have been worn many times.

"Obviously we cannot say that other items of the same type will have the same problem, or that a different method of cleaning may have had a more satisfactory result, because this was not tested, but we advise caution and that you carry out your own test if you are going to clean this type of garment."
