

Christopher Nieper – Managing Director – David Nieper Ltd.

MEETING OUR BREXIT CHALLENGE

Christopher Nieper is Managing Director of Derbyshire fashion house, David Nieper and founder of David Nieper Education Trust, together employing 325 staff in Britain and Europe.

Christopher Nieper joined the family business in 1986 and witnessed the British fashion industry's huge migration of manufacturing to offshore production. Choosing to go against this offshoring trend and remaining steadfast to the company's commitment to British manufacturing.

Christopher Nieper and his father David Nieper were awarded a Lifetime Achievement Award in 2014 for contribution to British made fashion and direct marketing by the Direct Commerce Association.

In September 2016, under Christopher's management the David Nieper Academy was opened and David Nieper became the first private, family fashion business to sponsor a British school.

