

Graeme Moran - Head of Fashion and Features - Drapers

Graeme Moran is head of fashion and features content at Drapers, the business to business trade title that has been seen as ‘the bible’ of the UK fashion industry since it was first published in 1887.

After completing a master’s degree in journalism, Moran started his career at Drapers over seven years ago as fashion editor.

Working across Drapers’ weekly print magazine, website, conferences and events, he works on product, trend, catwalk and trade show news, interviews, analysis and opinion, covering the breadth of the industry, from high street to luxury.
