

Helen Colebourn – Technical Consultant – Bureau Veritas

What makes a garment Athleisure? How can this be proven?

Helen Colebourn is the Softlines Technical Consultant for Bureau Veritas CPS UK. Prior to this role, Helen has over twenty years' experience in various technical roles within the clothing industry covering manufacturing in the UK and offshore, sourcing, supply chain management and ethical auditing.

She has worked supplying the majority of the High Street over the years as well as the e-tail industry latterly, splitting her time between the UK and Guangzhou, China over a three year period.