

David Reay - Chair - Northern Clothing and Textile Network

POST-BREXIT – HOW TO CREATE VALUE IN THE TEXTILE AND CLOTHING BUSINESSES

With a career spanning four decades David Reay has influenced the shape of some of the World's leading brands, renowned for their quality, precise in their delivery and efficient in their processes.

Always ready to roll-up-his-sleeves David will do the same for your brand. Whether that be supporting management with the day-to-day operations or occasional task specific or troubleshooting input, David now coaches the leadership teams of the global brands of tomorrow, from fast-fashion to high-end luxury names.

David is currently Chair at Northern Clothing and Textile Network having previously worked as COO at Partridge Trading, Director of sourcing and manufacturing at J Barbour & Sons Ltd, as well as other senior management positions at DR associates, Jockey International, and Bentwood Ltd.

